

UNISON Cymru Wales
Young Members Forum
presents

Nia Wyn

TONIGHT 21st April @ 8.30pm
in the Great Orme Brewery

'A hip hop soul in a blues body,
she wields that voice like an axe against the world around her.'

RESPECT
your Youth!

UNISON Cymru Wales Young Members Forum is offering

Free entry to see Nia Wyn and one free Great Orme Brewery drink

Entrance is by ticket only, available from UNISON delegates at conference (also available at the UNISON fringe meeting @ Venue Cymru, lunchtime today). Tickets are strictly limited, so get yours now!

Founded in Wales in 2016 by UNISON's Cymru/Wales Young Members Forum, Respect Your Youth works to raise awareness of the inequality faced by the under 35s in the UK.

Young people are hungry for change and want to be given a fair chance like the generations before them.

We advocate for realistic and practical changes both employers and the government can make to deliver a better future for young people.

www.respectouryouth.co.uk
contact@respectouryouth.co.uk

“Once again Wyn’s singing is the stand out, her rich and raw vocals fuelling ‘Do You Love Enough’ with passion and verve, making her a talent to keep your eye on this year.”

Indie Shuffle

“Raw, unfettered, it’s the honest sound of a precocious newcomer coming into her own.”

Clash Magazine

“Stunning bluesy vocals – a unique and captivating performer.”

Sofar Sounds

RESPECT
your Youth!